CLASSROOM NEWS

Please could all children bring an old shirt/ art apron into school for use when painting to avoid uniform being damaged.

We have been advised that students are not permitted to drink squash whilst in the classroom. They may have flavoured water which contains 0g of sugar as an alternative, as we understand not all children like water,

Twilight Express Year 2 Residential Trip

Parent meeting will be Wednesday 25th September at 3:30pm in KS1 Hall to discuss all things relating to the trip.

Parent Lunch

What a fantastic turn out! Thank you to all of the parents that came along to taste the food, we've had some amazing feedback and a record number of children are now signed up to school dinners as the food is so delicious! If you still haven't registered pop into the office.

Sam's Cake Sale

Please support Sam's charity cake sale by bringing in donations of cakes on Monday 23rd September. The cake sale will be held on Sam's birthday Tuesday 24th September during break time and home time on the KS1 & KS2 playgrounds.

Anglo-Saxon Visit

Year 3 & 4 had an awesome time on Wednesday when they stepped back in time and became Anglo- Saxons for the day! They quite literally spent a day in the life of and enjoyed every minute of their learning.

ODD SOCK DAY

Wednesday September 25th

Please come to school wearing odd socks!

We are working together with the Salvation Army to collect donations for their up and coming community kitchen. We are asking if you could please bring in a suitable food donation on Odd Sock Day instead of paying £1.
